My client, as a dutiful and caring wife, used to wake up in the early hours of the morning and organize the house in preparation for the day's activities. My client cooked all meals in the house on a daily basis along with all other cooking and cleaning duties. My client also helped carry your files, wallet and tiffin to your vehicle every morning before you left for work. My client did not only look after you but also took care of your family by taking care of all their requirements including food, medicines, health check-ups, etc. My client, from day one, has treated you and your family members with the same level of respect, love and affection as she has treated her own parents and family.
