Date: _____

To,

Sub- Your Marriage with Mrs. _____.

Sir,

Under instructions of my client, _____, having her present address at _____, I have to address you as under: -

1. The marriage between my client and you was arranged by a common friend of both the families i.e. one Mr. _____. My client and you met each other for the first time sometime in _____ and thereafter, pursuant to various meetings between the families, my client and you, with free will, consented to the marriage. [NOTE - Where the marriage otherwise took place between the parties after having known each other and deciding to get married (also known as love marriage), in such a case narrate the necessary basic facts on how the parties met each other, approximate period of courtship and other material facts antecedent to the marriage]

2. The marriage between my client and you was solemnized on _____ at _____, as per the applicable Hindu rites, rituals and customs and later, the same has been duly registered with the Registrar of Marriages at _____ on _____.

3. After the marriage, my client and you started residing together in wedlock at _____. Before you deserted my client, as more particularly set out hereinafter, my client and you cohabited at the said residence for ___ months/years as husband and wife. My client has sufficient proof of residence of the said place available with her.

4. After marriage, my client and you travelled together for ___ days/weeks and enjoyed each other's company. Thereafter, my client and you started your lives together in each other's company as husband and wife. My client and you used to attend together social events, family functions and also used to enjoy meals at restaurants and movies together on the weekends.

5. Thereafter, on _____, a daughter named _____ was born to my client and you. Presently, the daughter is ___ years old and who is studying in ___ grade at _____ School/College.

6. From sometime around _____, you started coming home from work, only after midnight and left for work very early in the morning. You started having all your meals outside the house and your communication with my client and your daughter became minimal. Upon enquiring with you by my client as to the reason for your changed behavior,
