Sub- You No.1's Marriage with my client Mrs.

Sir,

Under instructions of my client, _____, having her present address at _____, I have to address you as under: -

1. My client's marriage was an arranged marriage with You No. 1 and the marriage proposal was initiated through the family friends of You No. 1, in response to a matrimonial advertisement in a local newspaper by the parents of my client. Thereafter, the families of my client and You No. 1 met each other. Both of you developed liking for each other and therefore, with your consent and approval, the marriage between my client and You No. 1 was solemnized.

2. The marriage of my client and You No. 1 was solemnized as per Hindu rites, rituals and customs on _____ at _____ as per the provisions of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. At the time of the said marriage, my client was a spinster. The marriage of my client and You No. 1 has been duly registered with the Registrar of Marriages on _____ at _____. There is no issue out of the said wedlock.

3. My client and You No. 1 are practicing Hindus and professed the same religion at the time of marriage.

4. After the marriage, my client and You No. 1 started residing together in the wedlock at _____ and have also travelled together for _____ days/weeks and enjoyed each other's company. Thereafter, my client and You No. 1 started your lives together as husband and wife. My client and You No. 1 used to attend social events, family functions and also used to enjoy meals at restaurants and movies together on the weekends.

5. Prior to marriage, my client was working as _____ at a company and was earning a substantial income and was financially independent. However, after marriage, You No. 1 insisted that my client should not work as you earn sufficiently well for both of you and that my client should focus on household duties. Accordingly, my client resigned from her job and became a homemaker.
